The Woman's Relief Corps picnic in Frank's Park last Thursday was well attended and was a very pleasant affair.
Monday was Miss Eleanor Reed's birthday and a few neighbors gave her a birthday surprise party Monday evening.
Frank Bracken, an employe at tannery, had the index finger of his right hand badly injured on a roller one day last week.
Frank Caldwell, a young lad of West Reynoldsville, fell off an 18 foot trestle at Hopkins mill one day last week and was slightly injured.
The blowing of the glass plant whistle last night for the midnight turn made a number of people think that there was a fire somewhere.
There will be a special meeting of the W. C. T. U. Friday evening, Sept. 14th, at eight o'clock at home of Mrs. A. M. Woodward, on Main street.

Rev J Vernon Bell, of DuBois, will preach in the Presbyterian church at this place Friday evening.
Regular meeting of Hope Hose Company will be held at eight o'clock tomorrow evening. All members are requested to attend.
D. M. Dunsmore, assistant trainmaster of Low Grade Division, has moved into the company house formerly occupied by S. B. Rumsey.
A gentleman went into Bing & Co.'s store one day last week, stepped up to a dummy, with a wrapper on, politely removed his hat and inquired for Mr. Bing.
An inspection crew is inspecting all the bridges on the Low Grade. We understand that it is the intention of the P. R. R. Co. to put larger engines on this division.
E. A. Ferrin was in Philadelphia last week after his family. They arrived here Friday afternoon and are moving their household goods into the Ayers house this week.
Dr. McCoy, the noted specialist in treatment of chronic, female and rectal diseases, will visit his Reynoldsville patients Friday afternoon, Sept. 14. Will stop at Imperial hotel.
Mrs Henry Herpel gave her four-year-old daughter, Metta, a birthday party yesterday. A number of little tots were present. The mothers were invited to attend in the evening.
Levi Schugars, the Winslow township farmer, was injured by falling down cellar steps at his home one evening last week. He was walking through hall and did not know the cellar door was open.
Mr. and Mrs. James Behan, of Hazen, Kan., were guests of Mrs. Annie Winslow over Sunday. Mr. Behan is general manager of a large cattle ranch in Kansas. This is his first visit to this section in 23 years.
Ellsworth, youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Stewart, aged 13 months, died Tuesday, September 11th. Funeral services private, at the home this Wednesday, afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. Friends and relatives invited.
J. L. Shaffer and E. Rupert, of Sykesville, have just completed a large frame building and moved their hardware store into it. These gentlemen now have a fine store room and are in a position to handle the hardware trade in that section.
The Mission Circle of the Baptist church will render a Home Mission program in the Baptist church Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, after which ice cream and cake will be served in the parsonage. All are cordially invited. Proceeds are for home missions.
The ladies of the M. E. and Baptist churches, of Sykesville, who served dinner and supper last Thursday to the people who attended the P. O. S. of A. reunion at that place, made a snug sum for each church. The Methodists cleared about $60.00 and the Baptists about $50.00.
Hazel, young daughter of James A. McCreight, had a narrow escape from serious injury while crossing the street on her way home from school Thursday afternoon by being knocked down by a team of horses. The team was going slow and the driver saw Hazel in time to avert an accident.
W. S. Stone, who was master mechanic at this place for the A. V. Ry Co., has been promoted by the P. R. R. Co. to position of general supervision of engineers and firemen, maintenance of equipment, cars, engines, etc., on Low Grade Division. Mr. Stone now has an office in the main office at this place.
Misses Maud and Ethel Hepburn, of Salem, Oregon, are now at the home of their aunt, Mrs. A. B. Weed, in West Reynoldsville. Their mother died recently and Miss Ethel, who is fourteen years old, expects to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Weed. It is likely she will attend school in this borough.
J. B. Arnold offers all his household goods at private sale. One Decker piano, cost $550, will sell for $200. A gas range, only used a few months, cost $27, will sell at $20. Ice chest, best made, new, cost $13, will sell at $8; ask Stanley, the ice man, if it is not the best in town. A chance to get good goods for little money. My residence is also for sale at $1,000 less than actual value.
Miss Tillie Travis, of Jeterville, West Va., who is doing missionary work among the colored children at Jeterville, under direction of the Presbyterian Board of Missions, was the guest of Miss Belle Arnold the first of this week. It is to Miss Travis and her sister that the Presbyterian Junior and Intermediate Christian Endeavor Society of this place send the missionary boxes at Christmas time.
It is said that the Pennsylvania Railroad company will not allow a man to continue in their employ who will not pay his debts. They propose to pay salaries that will enable their men to live and they are opposed to encouraging dead beats. When a complaint is made that so and so owes a bill and refuses or persistently neglects to settle, a notice or reminder is mailed to the delinquent, and if the matter is not attended to forthwith he will be discharged.—Kane Republican.

Visitors Last Night.
Prof E O Excell, the noted singer of Chicago, and Dr C C Rumberger, of Tionesta, former pastor of the Reynoldsville M E church, were in town last night. Stop off on their way to Punxsy to attend conference.
Special Sermon Sunday.
Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek will preach a sermon to the P. O. S. of A. next Sunday, Sept. 16, at 11 a. m. in the Baptist church of this city. Special music will be rendered by the choir. The Order will occupy reserved seats in the front of the auditorium. Welcome to all.
May Extend Telephone Line.
The directors of the Summerville Telephone Company held a meeting in Brookville yesterday to consider the advisability of extending the telephone line to Big Soldier, as requested by some of the citizens of that hamlet. Dr. Haven, president of the company, and W. T. Cox, of this place, were appointed a committee to investigate the matter. If the line is extended to Big Soldier it will likely be extended to Sykesville also.
Small Blaze.
There was a small blaze on the roof of the Jefferson Supply Company store about 11:00 a. m. yesterday, which is supposed to have caught from a spark from a passing freight engine. The fire alarm was sounded and Hope Hose boys were quick to respond, although the run was a long one in the hot sun. The fire was discovered before it gained much headway and was extinguished with a few buckets of water before the fire company arrived. The damage to roof was slight.
Store House Discontinued.
Ever since the running of through trains on the Low Grade Division, about 27 years ago, there has been a store house at Reynoldsville, where all kinds of supplies were kept for engines, and for a number of years Squire Joseph T. Guthrie has been the store keeper. The store house will be discontinued this week and it is very likely that Mr. Guthrie, who has been in the employ of the P. R. R. and A. V. Ry companies forty years, will be put on the pension roll and be retired from active service. Squire has been a faithful employe and should be pensioned.
Year's Work.
Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of the M. E. church, preached his last sermon Sunday evening for the conference year which closed Sunday, and is at Punxsutawney this week attending the annual conference. Rev. Reno made a report Sunday evening of the work of the past year as follows: Sermons preached, not including funeral sermons, 123; funerals 18; weddings 6; baptisms, adults 13, children 14; pastoral calls made 800; probationers received 90; received into church in full relation 63; probationers moved away 4; probationers gone to other churches 3; probationers on roll 20; members received by letter 38; given letters 6; members died 1; money raised for benevolence $388.00.
Gone to Dogland.
Sport, a spaniel dog owned by Dr. S. Reynolds, was so badly injured by a freight train at B. R. & P. station Saturday morning that he had to be chloroformed. Sport had followed Will Reynolds to the pasture field with the cow and on the return trip home a freight train was passing station slowly and Sport ran under train and was caught. The cruel wheels cut off his right front leg and his tail. Will carried his dog to station platform and ran up to drug store for chloroform, but while he was making the trip Sport managed to walk on three legs as far as Jackson street. The dog was chloroformed and given a respectable burial. Sport followed Ab Reynolds frequently and Ab was as much grieved about the dog's untimely death as any member of Doctor's family. Ab said: "There are a hundred other dogs I would sooner have seen killed." The owners of the other dogs, no doubt, feel differently about that.
Public School Lecture Course.
The patrons of the public school lecture course may expect this season a stronger array of talent than has been provided for any previous course. It is not possible to announce in this issue of THE STAR definitely the list of attractions because contracts have not yet been closed with all of them, but the best talent only is being sought after. Mr. Ernest Gamble, the wonderful basso, who delighted the people of Reynoldsville last spring with his attractive manner and low "D's" will give the first number of the course on Friday evening, Sept. 28. Mr. Gamble will be assisted by Mr. Edward Shonert, of Chicago, acknowledged to be the finest pianist of the west.
The course will consist of six numbers. Further attractions will probably be the African Boy Choir, Edwin R. Weeks Concert Co., Nancy McGee Waters, of Chicago, and other equally famous talent.
The canvass for season tickets will be made in a few days. We ask the patronage and co-operation of all persons interested in education and progress to make this the most successful lecture course yet held in Reynoldsville.

GLASS PLANT RUNNING.
Started Yesterday Morning—Large Number of Visitors Present the First Day.
The Star Glass Company plant at this place was started at 8:00 a. m. yesterday. The blowers and gatherers went to work under the anti-Burns or Falls Creek scale, which was signed Monday evening. The cutters and flatteners went to work under scale of their respective committees.
At about 8:20 a. m. the first cylinders of glass were finished, which showed a superior article. Practical glass workers speak of the product as being as fine, if not the finest, on the market. All that is required to place Reynoldsville at the head in producing a good quality of glass, is care in flattening and cutting.
A large number of our citizens visited the plant yesterday and watched the glass blowers working.
Fracas Saturday Evening.
A half dozen Italians and Poles, who were intoxicated, raised considerable excitement on Main street about 7:00 p. m. Saturday. They began to talk fight down at the corner of Main and Fourth streets, and kept walking up Main street until they reached the new brick building at corner of Coal alley, then they got into the street and began fighting, using clubs and pieces of brick. They did not stop long, but kept fighting as they traveled on. In front of Joseph Hammond's new residence the fight was more fierce than it had been at any time before. Bricks and clubs were used and knives and revolvers were drawn to be used. One fellow got an ugly cut on forehead with a piece of board, and one got hit with a brick. The fight was kept up until near the east end of Main street. At one time an Italian had a long knife raised to plunge it into a Pole when someone nearby caught the Italian's arm in time to prevent a murder. The whole gang should have been arrested, but the fracas happened when there were no officers around.

CLARENCE J. HENRY, DECEASED.

The above picture of Clarence J. Henry should have appeared with the short sketch of his life published in THE STAR last week, but our engraver failed to get the cut ready in time for that issue, and hence, we give it space this week.
We Need "Filthy Lucre."
At the present time we are in need of "coin of the realm" and expect to make a special effort within the next few weeks to try and see our subscribers personally, or send them notices of amount due, with the hope of collecting up all arrearages on subscriptions. The amount that each one owes us is small, but when it is considered that a large number owe small amounts it will be seen that it means considerable to us. We hope that each person knowing themselves indebted will make it convenient to call and settle, and their kindness will be greatly appreciated. The figures opposite name on paper will show each one when the subscription expired. The first figure is the month, second figures day of month and last figures the year. For example if your subscription expired May 11, 1900, the figures will be 5 11 00. Please give this your attention.
Need Servant Girls.
Down at Reynoldsville where they have a silk mill that employs several hundred girls, there is at the present time a shortage of girls to do domestic work as most of them can find employment at the silk mill where their services receive more remuneration and where the hours are not so long, and as a result half of the married men are going without breakfast in the morning. The alarm has been spread, however, and it is thought that there will now be an influx of servant girls at Reynoldsville that will supply the town for a thousand years.—Falls Creek Herald.
New Officers.
At the annual convention of the Jefferson County Women's Christian Temperance Union held in Corsica on Wednesday and Thursday of last week, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Elizabeth Dickey, of Brookville; vice-president, Mrs. Mary Graffus, of Punxsutawney; recording secretary, Mrs. L. M. Groves, of Brookville; corresponding secretary, Mrs. S. E. Pifer, of Falls Creek; treasurer, Mrs. F. P. Britt, of Corsica.

DIED YESTERDAY MORNING.
Noah Strauss Will be Seen No More Upon Our Streets.
Noah Strauss, a christian gentleman and highly esteemed resident of Winslow township, peacefully departed this life at 6:10 a. m. yesterday. Death was caused by bright disease. Mr. Strauss was born July 12, 1843, on the farm where he died. August 27th, 1868, he was married to Miss Minerva Phillippi, daughter of Solomon Phillippi. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Stauffer, near Luthersburg. Into this couple eight children were born, six boys and two girls, three of whom, two sons and one daughter, preceded the father across the silent river. For many years Noah Strauss was a faithful member of the Lutheran church. Mr. Strauss was a master of the violin and a good singer. His entire family were musicians and they could give first-class concerts. The Strauss family became noted for their musical ability and hospitality and many of our citizens have frequently enjoyed both. When the family was all at home it was, without doubt, the happiest family circle in this neighborhood. For years the Strauss family furnished music for most all special occasions in Paradise Settlement, and the announcement that they would be present was always a good drawing card. Mr. Strauss was an affectionate husband, loving father and a very kind neighbor, and in his untimely death the community loses an upright and honest citizen.
Mr. Strauss was a member of the Grange and at one time held an office in that society. He was elected to office of assessor in Winslow township one or two terms. During the war between the north and south Mr. Strauss was ready to offer his life on his country's altar, but he was rejected once on account of being too young. He finally did enlist but before he met the enemy the war ended.
The deceased is survived by his wife and the following children: Mrs. Mable Gallagher, of Irwin, Pa., Albert and Ambrose L. Strauss, who are living at the homestead, Will L. and John F., of McDonald, Pa.
Funeral services will be held at the Strauss Church, little brick church near the Strauss residence, at 2:00 p. m. today. Rev. W. Selner, pastor, will conduct the funeral services.
P. O. S. OF A. REUNION.
Sykesville Dressed in Gala Attire—Large Crowd—Big Parade.
The seventh annual reunion of the Northwestern Reunion Association, which is composed of the P. O. S. of A. Camps of Jefferson, Clearfield and Clarion counties, was held at Sykesville last Thursday. There was a large crowd present. The town was dressed in gala attire for the special occasion. Two large arches spanned Main street and bunting was conspicuous all over town. The citizens of Sykesville gave the P. O. S. of A. boys as warm and hearty welcome as they will receive from larger towns. For some reason the ball game and bicycle races were not given as advertised, but the balance of the program was carried out. The parade at 1:30 p. m. was a large one. There were eleven Camps and two brass bands in line. Reynoldsville Camp, No. 268, with their red, white and blue umbrellas, made the finest appearance of any Camp in line, notwithstanding the fact that the judges did not give them the prize for best appearance. Capt. Joseph M. Cathers seemed to be somewhat "stuck-up"—he was a head taller than any of the other boys.
After the parade the people assembled in Romantic Park to hear the speeches. Rev. Barden, of Clearfield, presided at the meeting in the park. Squire Avera Sykes, who was chief marshal, delivered the address of welcome. Hon. W. I. Swope, of Clearfield, was introduced and he delivered an eloquent address on the "Rights of Citizenship and Rights of Wage Earners." Rev. Palmer, of Sykesville, and A. D. Deemer, of Brookville, were also introduced and both made short speeches.
After the speeches the judges announced the awarding of prizes as follows: 1st prize, largest per cent of members in line, Rockton; 2nd prize, lodge coming longest distance, Hazen; 3rd prize, best appearance, Clearfield; 4th prize, largest No. in line, Reynoldsville.
The ladies of the Methodist Episcopal and Baptist churches served dinner and supper to the strangers, and there was a large supply of good things and every person received courteous attention.
Sykesville Camp, No. 456, is to be congratulated on the success of the seventh annual reunion of the Northwestern Association. That Camp need not be afraid to invite the Association to their town again.
Sykesville has a brass band that the town has reason to feel proud of.
Lawn Fete.
The West Reynoldsville schools will hold a lawn fete next Friday evening at the home of Harry Sykes. Ice cream and cake will be served. All are cordially invited to attend.
Excursion to Pittsburg.
On account of the Pittsburg Exposition the B. R. & P. Ry Co. will sell excursion tickets to Pittsburg at rate of $4.00 for round trip. Tickets will be sold Sept. 12, 19, 25, Oct. 3, 10 and 17, good for return passage on all regular trains up to and including Saturday following date of sale.
We make a specialty of school shoes; prices average down at Robinson's.
Don't forget our famous chocolate soda; as good as ever. 5 cents. Reynolds Drug Store.
If you want the best shoes on the market, you can get them at Robinson's.
Johnston & Nolan have a fine line of Emerson's shoes for gentlemen. See them.

DEATH FROM TYPHOID FEVER.
Rev. Thomas W. Booth Died Sunday—Was Buried Yesterday.
Rev. Thomas W. Booth, son of Rev. J. and Mrs. A. E. Booth, of this city, died at his late residence in Pittsburg, Pa., on Duquesne Heights, after an illness of about three weeks of typhoid fever, complicated with heart failure. About fourteen days before his death he took to his bed. The best medical skill was summoned and kind hands ministered to his needs, but despite all that could be done, death claimed its victim on Sunday, Sept. 9th, 1900, at 10:00 p. m. At about the time he took his bed, he felt that the time of his departure was near at hand. He talked calmly concerning his death and arranged his business affairs for the exchange of worlds. He was content to die to the end and gave the clearest evidence of an abiding faith in Christ, whose gospel he had preached for a number of years.
He was born February 2, 1864, in Reynoldsville, Pa., where he spent his boyhood years and attended the public schools. His parents having moved to Clarion county in 1876, he attended Reid Institute for three years, where he graduated, after which he entered Bucknell University and graduated in 1889, after spending four years. He then entered the Morgan Park Theological Seminary in Chicago, Ill., where he spent three years, and graduated in 1892. He gave evidence of conversion when in tender years. He publicly confessed the Saviour at the Beulah Baptist church and was baptized by his father, who was the pastor. Soon after his confession he was licensed to preach by the Beulah church, and when in Bucknell University and Morgan Park Seminary he exercised his gifts by preaching to several churches, and was ordained to the work of the ministry in Cazenovia, Ill., in 1890. Upon leaving the Seminary he took charge of the First Baptist church in Marinette, Wisconsin, where he was instrumental in the erection of a splendid meeting house costing about $15,000.00. He next took charge of the Baptist church at Muncy, Pa., where God used him in the erection of another building costing about $15,000.00. He then took charge of the Russell Street Baptist church in Columbus, Ohio, where he did a good work. He then became pastor of the First Baptist church in Jeanette, Pa., where he did his last pastoral work. His health having failed him he resigned and closed his work in June, 1899. He was a successful and able minister of the Word of God, and added more than five hundred to the membership of the churches of which he was pastor. He moved to Ford City, Pa., and entered the office with his brother-in-law, Mr. Logan Crismyre, and later removed to Pittsburg, where he died. He was an earnest and zealous christian and was superintendent of the Duquesne Heights Baptist Sunday school at the time of his death. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias in Columbus, Ohio, also a member of some other organizations in which he carried life insurance to the amount of $500.00. He was married at Lewisburg, Pa., to Miss Maude E. Crismyre, of the 18th of July, 1889, and is survived by a wife and two children, a son and a daughter, also father, mother, two brothers and four sisters. He enjoyed a large acquaintance and many friends. He was a kind husband and loving father.
His remains were brought to Reynoldsville on Monday evening and funeral services were held in the Baptist church by the pastor, Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek, assisted by Rev. J. E. Dean and Rev. W. Frank Reber, on Tuesday at 2:30 p. m., September 11th, a large audience being present, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Baptist cemetery at Reynoldsville. "He is gone but not forgotten."
The following out of town people attended the funeral: S. A. Bowser and wife, of Ford City, Logan Crismyre, of Pittsburg, Clarence W and Fred Booth, of Wilkingsburg.
